Distance brought the urbsounds collective closer on back mirror, their most collaborative release to date. From London, Monika Subrtova and Daniel Kordik of jamka traded files with urbanfailure (Michal Lichy) and rbnx (Tobias Potocny) in Bratislava. Each created an original song, then put their own touch on the others' tracks until the whole became a sonic mayhem of fractured beats, lo-fi rhythms, and the exquisite squelches and oscillations of homemade audio devices. You hold in your hands four songs in a state of perfect chaos.
